

Sippican Lands Trust Properties & Walking Trails

Kenney's Landing

Kenney's Landing provides access to the upper reaches of the Sippican River in Marion.
Location: Just under 1/2 mile north of the I-195 overpass on the right-hand side. Turn right on Ichabod Lane and follow to the end of the cul-de-sac.

Gallison Woods

Gallison Woods is an 11-acre property offering visitors a connection to the upper reaches of the Sippican River as it flows eastward and then south toward the Weveantic River.
Location: Located at the end of Inland Road, off Route 105, just North of the I-195 overpass.

Radio Tower

The Radio Tower property once featured 440-foot high radio towers, erected by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. in 1914, that were used by the US Air Force during World War II. In 1956 all but one of the 14 towers were dismantled.
Location: Just south of the former railroad bed, next to SLT's White Eagle property.

Hoff Property

The Sippican Lands Trust is currently fundraising to acquire and protect the Hoff property. Once acquired, the Lands Trust intends to create walking trails on the property.

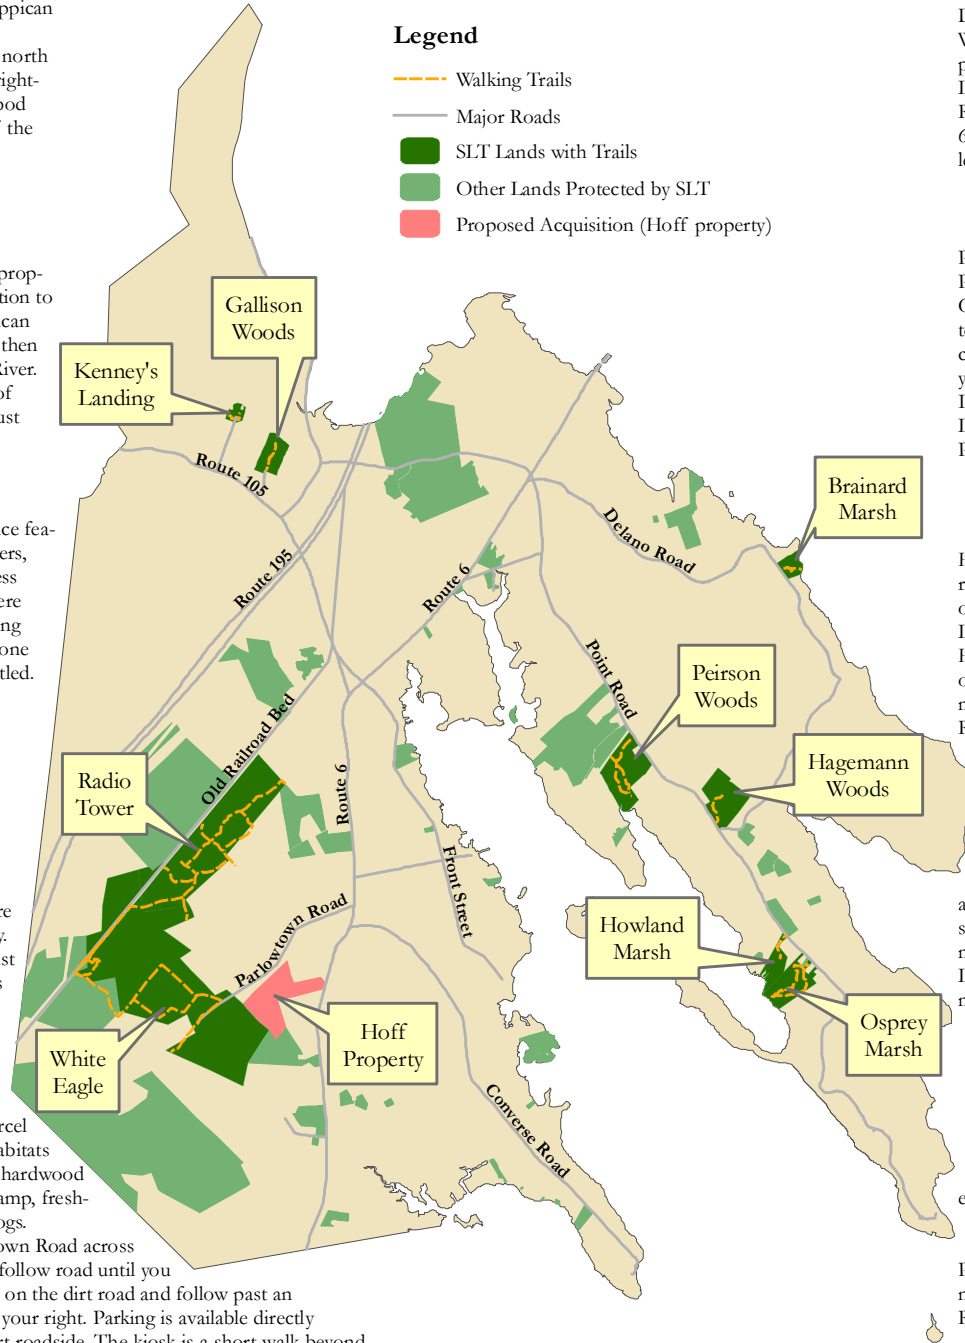

White Eagle

The 248-acre White Eagle parcel supports a rich diversity of habitats including upland pine, mixed hardwood forest, shrub and wooded swamp, freshwater marsh and cranberry bogs.
Location: Turn onto Parlowtown Road across from the town cemetery and follow road until you reach the cul-de-sac. Veer left on the dirt road and follow past an abandoned cranberry bog on your right. Parking is available directly past the bog and along the dirt roadside. The kiosk is a short walk beyond.

Brainard Marsh

Brainard Marsh is accessed through an opening in a stone wall along Delano Road. The path leads to the Weveantic River. A spur trail leads past a wet meadow and a small pond.
Location: 1.5 miles down Delano Road from the intersection of Route 6, Point and Delano Roads, on the left hand side.

Peirson Woods

Peirson Woods covers 30 acres from Point Road down to Blankenship Cove. The protected diamondback terrapin lives here year round. On a clear day Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard and the northern Elizabeth Islands can be seen.
Location: Point Road, past Marion Public Golf Course, right hand side.

Hagemann Woods

Hagemann Woods offers unusual rolling contours and includes forests of white pine, oak and red maple.
Location: The parking area for Hagemann Woods is located off of Point Road approximately two miles south of the intersection of Route 6 and Point Road.

Howland Marsh

Howland Marsh is quietly tucked into the southeast corner of Planting Island Cove and includes almost 9 acres of serene and unspoiled refuge for shore birds and marine life.
Location: Point Road, about 2.5 miles from the traffic light on Rte. 6, right hand side. About 100 yards past Rogers Drive.

Osprey Marsh

Osprey Marsh features an 1,800' accessible boardwalk on the property leading to a viewing platform overlooking Planting Island Cove.
Location: Parking is located off Point Road approximately three miles south of the intersection of Route 6 and Point Road.
